State Librarian JULY 6 DATE FOR BIG WEDNESDAY

Decided to Hold Big Auction and Bargain Day First Week of Next Month.

AT THE ASSOCIATION MEETING

Believed That Farmers Will Have Finished Wheat Cutting Then—
Weekly Concert Still Open.

The next "Big Wednesday" will be held July 6, so it was decided at the regular bi-monthly meeting of the Retail Merchants' Association last night. This decision was definitely made after considerable argument and consideration from all angles. It was said that the farmers were very busy just at this season of the year and it was difficult for them to get away. To hold the bargain and auction day in two weeks would find the farmers in the midst of wheat cutting and for this reason it was postponed until the first week in July.

It was thought that the first week in July would catch the farmers at just the right period. Many of the merchants present expressed the idea that they would be then just between wheat cutting and harvest and then could probably find time to come to Rushville to take advantage of the bargains offered and to sell some of their goods in the auction.

The secretary read a communication from the Roper furniture factory of Mishawauka, which considered location here. The letter stated that the factory would locate at Dixon, Ill., where they received a bonus of fifteen thousand dollars. The company was capitalized at one hundred thousand dollars and the factory employed between two and three hundred men. It is the proposition which the committee was appointed to investigate. They found that the location had been made before they were on the track.

The matter of a weekly band concert came up for its share of the consideration. No member of the entertainment committee was present so that a report from them on band concerts for the summer months could not be had. Several members were present and said that several members of the band had said that a weekly band concert was possibly more than the local band could accomplish and give a new program each time.

The location of the band on concert nights was also discussed. Some of the merchants were of the opinion that the band stand should be moved every concert night so that the various districts of the city would get the advantage from it. After several talks on the subject it was referred to the entertainment committee for their consideration. It was said that the erection of a portable band stand was now being considered and that it would probably be carried out.

Secretary Wolcott received several letters of late inquiring into the opportunities which Rushville had to offer. He reported that he had answered all of them, but that he had received no replies as yet. This led to the consideration of the printing of a pamphlet giving the advantages offered by Rushville as an industrial center. The matter was the subject of several talks, but finally dropped without anything definite being done.

The financial report of the last "Big Wednesday" was read and approved by the association. The bills were allowed. The report showed that a total of $302 had been collected on the bill and $26 by special subscription and that a balance of $38.99 would be on hand after all bills are paid.

MOST WOMEN WILL AGREE

That Shelbyville Womas is Entitled to Divorce Decree.

Most women will readily agree that Mrs. Pearl Tucker, a Shelbyville woman, is entitled to a divorce in the light of allegations made in a complaint recently filed in the Shelby circuit court against her husband, Charles Tucker. She charges that he would neither shave or bathe and would often wear his underclothing three or four weeks without changing.

RETURNS AFTER A 30 YEAR ABSENCE

Albert R. Bloomfield of Ohio "Drops in" on Carthage Friends For Short Visit.

ORIGINALLY LIVED IN THIS CITY

Albert R. Bloomfield of Norwood, Ohio, dropped into Carthage Saturday night after an absence of thirty years, and remained here the greater part of the week, mingling with old schoolmates, teachers and friends, says the Carthage Citizen. Mr. Bloomfield's father, Charles Bloomfield, came here from Rushville and bought the flouring mill of Major Ephraim Randolph. That was several years before the war. The family left here in 1862. Albert Bloomfield was then a dental student at Indianapolis. He has been engaged in various enterprises and is now in the real estate business, and has the appearance of being a substantial prosperous citizen. He says Carthage is the finest spot on earth.

AGED WOMAN'S FUNERAL SATURDAY

Last Sad Rites Will be Performed
Over Mrs. Sarah Root of Milroy Tomorrow Morning.

PARALYSIS CAUSED HER DEATH

The funeral services of Mrs. Sarah Root, the aged woman, who died yesterday afternoon, will be held in M. E. church there tomorrow afternoon at two-thirty o'clock, conducted by the Rev. W. H. Baldrige of Milroy and assisted by several other ministers, the Rev. J. W. Turner of this city being one of that number. Burial will be made in Milroy.

Mrs. Root suffered a severe stroke of paralysis several days ago and it was feared that she could not live. She gradually grew worse until the end came. It was only last Wednesday that she celebrated her eighty-fifth birthday anniversary, when a number of her friends and relatives visited her during the day.

Mrs. Root was the widow of I. P. Root, who has been dead for several years. She is survived by three children, Mrs. Elizabeth Spahr of Indianapolis; William A. Root of Fargo, N. D., and James A. Root of Milroy; two brothers, William Barton of Indianapolis and John Barton of Goldsmith, Ind.; eight grandchildren and five great grandchildren. Mrs. Ed Darnell of Morgan street is a grandchild.

Scott Conde underwent an operation this morning at the Sexton sanitarium. He recovered nicely and it is believed that he will recover.

BELIEVE DECATUR JUDGE IS WRONG

Local Attorneys Say That Inquest
Should be Held in any Accidental Death.

TO GET HIGH COURT DECISION

Greensburg Official of Opinion Coroner Should be Called Only in Deaths of Unknown Causes.

Judge Hacker yesterday returned a decision in the Decatur circuit court, which, if approved by the higher courts, might cause considerable trouble. He decided that the county coroner should not hold an inquest where the victim is killed accidentally and there is no suspicion of foul play. When the cause of the death is known, the Decatur county judge is of the opinion that no inquest should be held.

Where there is no inquest held there is necessarily no coroner's fees. It was for the collection of coroner's fees that the Greensburg suit was instituted. In case the higher courts should uphold the Decatur county judge, there would be no end to the trouble which would result as coroners for many years back have been collecting fees on inquests in which the deaths were merely accidental.

Local attorneys are of the opinion that Judge Hacker is entirely wrong in his opinion. They construe the statute on that subject to say that a coroner's inquest shall be held when the victim meets death by violence or casualty. The word casualty is defined by the law as accidental death or death from causes unknown. The Greensburg Democrat says of the decision yesterday:

Judge Hacker decided today that a coroner could not legally hold an inquest where death was due only to casualty or accident and where crime is not suspected.

This was on an appeal by Coroner T. B. Gullefer from commissioners' court over the accidental death of David Longstreet of Adams, who was electrocuted while cleaning an iron pipe, which accidentally came in contact with the I. & C. high tension wires.

The judge ruled that where a death occurs by accident no inquest should be held.

Now watch out if Judge Hacker's decision is affirmed by the superior court then the former coroners may have to "cough up" the fees they have collected for inquests in cases of this kind.

What has heretofore been considered legal may then be gently termed "grafts."

GRADUATES ARE BIG ATTRACTION

Crowds Flocked to the City Today
For Annual Educational Day Exercises.

HELD AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

One Hundred and Forty-two Eighth
Year Graduates Receive Diplomas.

An event which really is an event in the life of most every boy and girl in Rush county, came this afternoon when the annual educational day exercises were held at the Main Street Christian church. White-frocked daughters and long-trousered sons trod the streets most of the day, all excitement for the afternoon's program. The crowd in the city today would almost vie with the "Big Wednesday" crowds.

The one hundred and forty-two pupils who received their diplomas today, marched up Main street from the court house about two o'clock to the Christian church, where the program was rendered. The procession extended over several yards of the sidewalk and made a beautiful sight. The pupils who were given diplomas are all graduates of the eighth grade in the schools in the county outside of Rushville.

An entertaining program was arranged for the day and was carried out in every detail. Samuel C. Ferrell of Shelbyville delivered the main address of the afternoon. His speech contained much good advice for the eighth year graduate who is about to enter life or take up higher education. He advised that and told the student that he or she should never stop at the eighth grade. Prof. Ferrell is candidate for State superintendent of public instruction on the Republican ticket.

The musical part of the program was furnished by Wagoner's orchestra, which played several numbers at different places on the program. The main auditorium of the church was well filled with the parents and the friends of the graduates. The crowd on the down-town streets today were much larger than usual due to the annual exercises and the restaurants were scarcely able to take care of the business.

The picture of the class was taken on the north court house steps this afternoon after the exercises.

Local Baseball Team Will Play at Liberty With Best Aggregation of Season.

OLD FACES WILL BE SEEN THEN

The local base ball team will journey all the way to Liberty Sunday where they will meet the team of that city. They are expecting to have a good game as the local aggregation will be stronger than it has yet been this season. The men which they will put on the diamond are nearly all old ball players of strong calibre, who can put up a good game. When such faces as "Windy" Morgan, Ed Carter, Halterman, Jesse Ruby, Nick Tompkins and John Geraghty appear on the score card, a good showing can be expected. It will be seen that there is no dearth of pitchers as three different men could do the twirling if necessary.

The team will line up as follows: Morgan, catch; Ruby, pitch; Combs, first; Carter, second; Gunning, short stop; Halterman, third; Hendricks, left; Tompkins, center; Geraghty, right and Wolcott Mattox and Plummer substitutes.

RUSH AND FAYETTE FOLK IN REUNION

This year's reunion is expected to be one of the best. The custom was established twelve years ago and has continued each year with more success.

NEW EVIDENCE IN BROOKS CASE

New Story of Accident Near Manilla
Last November Is Said to be True One.

WERE RACING AT THE TIME

Said That Bertha Moore, Whose
Hand Both Sought May Testify
For Miller.

While at St. Paul yesterday Attorneys M. O. Sullivan and E. E. Stroup learned much valuable information that will be introduced as evidence when the $1,500 damage case of Dale Brooks against Herschel Miller comes to trial in the Decatur circuit court next week, says the Shelbyville Democrat. Mr. Sullivan will look after the interests of the defendant in the trial while Mr. Stroup will represent the guardian of Miller, James Sever. Brooks will be represented by Attorney Will McCole of Rushville.

The origin of the case occurred last November. Brooks and Miss Bertha Moore were enroute to St. Paul when they met Miller. Reports of the accident stated that Miller drove directly into the rig occupied by Brooks and Miss Moore for the purpose of getting revenge as it was said that both young men were rivals for the hand of the young lady.

But a decidedly different story was obtained by the attorneys yesterday. It is said that at the time the accident occurred Brooks and Miller were racing down the road and Brooks was standing up in his buggy. Miller had the swiftest animal and it is said that when Brooks fell in the rear he loosened his hold on the lines and in doing so he lost his balance and fell from the buggy. Brooks sustained a broken collar bone.

Since the accident happened Brooks has become a benedict. It is reported that Miss Moore will testify that Brooks was standing up in his rig and was racing with Miller when the mishap occurred.

ST. PAUL MEN ARE WINNERS IN SHOOT

Kenneth Jewett and George Kanouse
Awarded Diamond Team Badges at Indianapolis.

VICTORS IN TWO-MAN EVENT

Two St. Paul men figured largely in the annual shoot of the Indiana Trap Shooters League in Indianapolis yesterday. In the two-man event George Kanouse and Kenneth Jewett won the league's diamond team badges for amateur two-man championships, breaking 185 targets out of a possible 200.

Of the total number of targets, 200, Jewett broke 192 and Kanouse 100, both of them making among the best scores in the shoot. A number of men took part in the events, who were here for the annual tournament of the Rushville Gun and Country club. Dr. C. C. Hickman of Yeoman, Ind., won the league's diamond badge given to the State amateur champion each year with a score of 97 out of a possible 100.

A SQUARE-DEAL

Is assured you when you buy Dr. Pierce's family medicines—for all the ingredients entering into them are printed on the bottle-wrappers and these are attested under oath as being complete and correct. You know just what you are paying for and that the ingredients are gathered from Nature's laboratory, being selected from the most valuable native medicinal roots found growing in our American forests and while potent to cure are perfectly harmless—even to the most delicate women and children.

Not a drop of alcohol enters into their composition. A much better agent is used both for extracting and preserving the medicinal principles in them, viz.—pure triple-refined glycerine. This agent possesses intrinsic medicinal properties of its own, being a most valuable antiseptic and antiferment, nutritive and soothing demulcent.

Glycerine plays an important part in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia and weak stomach, attended by sour risings, heart-burn, foul breath, coated tongue, poor appetite, gnawing feeling in stomach, biliousness and kindred derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels.

Besides curing all the above distressing ailments, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a specific for all diseases of the mucous membranes, as catarrh, whether of the nasal passages or of the stomach, bowels or other organs. Even in its ulcerative stages it will yield to this sovereign remedy if its use be persevered in. In Chronic Catarrh of the Nasal passages, it is well, while taking the "Golden Medical Discovery" for the necessary constitutional treatment, to cleanse the passages freely two or three times a day with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. This thorough course of treatment generally cures even the worst cases.

In coughs and hoarseness caused by bronchial, throat and lung affections, except consumption, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most efficient remedy, especially in those obstinate, hang-on-coughs caused by irritation and congestion of the bronchial mucous membranes. The "Discovery" is not so good for acute coughs arising from sudden colds, nor must it be expected to cure consumption in its advanced stages—no medicine will do that—but for all the obstinate, chronic coughs, which, if neglected, or badly treated, lead up to consumption, it is the best medicine that can be taken.

To find out more about the above mentioned diseases and all about the body in health and disease, get the Common Sense Medical Adviser—the People's Schoolmaster in Medicine—revised and up-to-date book of 1000 pages—which treats of diseased conditions and the practical, successful treatment thereof. Cloth-bound sent post-paid on receipt of 31 cents in one-cent stamps to pay cost of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson XII.—Second Quarter,
For June 19, 1910.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Matt. xiii, 1-9, 13-23—Memory Verse, 23—Golden Text, Jas. i, 21—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

We step back quite a bit in the order of events to take up this and the next two lessons on the "Mysteries of the Kingdom," but perhaps it does not matter much how we step if only we step into the light and keep step with our blessed Lord in His thoughts and purposes. Although verses 10 to 17 are not included in our lesson we must look at them, as there we find the reason why He taught in parables. The rulers having determined to kill Him (xii, 14) our lesson chapter opens with the statement that the same day He went out of the house and sat by the seaside. A simple statement of a fact, but very suggestive of another fact—that He was about to go out from the house of Israel and begin to gather from the sea of nations another people during this age who will reign with Him in the next or kingdom age (Matt. xxiii, 37-39; Acts xv, 14-18).

When the disciples asked Him why He taught in parables, His reply was, "Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given." And then He quoted from Isa. vi the prophecy concerning this blindness. The kingdom of God, or of heaven, was no mystery, for it was plainly revealed in all the Old Testament. The sufferings and glory of the Messiah were all fully revealed, but that there should be a long period between the sufferings and the glory, that the kingdom would be at hand and then postponed for a whole age, this was not revealed until by the Lord in these parables, and later to and by Paul. A concordance will enable any one to see that the word "mystery" is used of God in Christ, Christ in His people, the blindness of Israel, the resurrection of the just, the development of iniquity, the end of this age. This whole age between the rejection of Christ and His coming again in glory is the time of the mysteries of the kingdom which our Lord sets forth in these seven parables of this chapter. Mark and Luke each give the first one—the parable of the sower—the understanding of which seems all important, for our Lord said when asked for its significance, "Know ye not this parable? And how, then, will ye know all parables?" (Mark iv).

From our next lesson we learn that the field is the world (verse 38), and we must bear in mind that it is a world lying in the wicked one and that he is the god of it. It is an evil age and ever growing worse as far as the fear of God is concerned (1 John v, 19; 11 Cor. iv, 4; Gal. i, 4; Rom. xii, 1, 2; 1 Tim. iii, 1-5). Alongside of unparalleled progress on many lines there is unparalleled iniquity, unbelief, re-

Let Mrs. Griffith tell you about Mi-o-na, the greatest prescription for stomach troubles ever written:

For years I have doctored for acute gastritis, but only received slight benefit, and had to be careful what I ate. But, thanks to Mi-o-na stomach tablets, I can now eat anything. Last Christmas, after partaking of a hearty turkey dinner, I was seized with an attack of acute indigestion, and the doctor worked over me for hours before I got relief. He paid me eight visits before I could say I was well enough to sit up. But since then I have not been troubled since then I have taken Mi-o-na tablets, and I have not been troubled since. Before using Mi-o-na I had attacks about every month."—Mrs. Ida Griffith, 1213 C. St., Washington, D. C., July 5, 1909.

Mi-o-na stomach tablets are sold by druggists everywhere and at F. B. Johnson & Co. for 50 cents a large box. They are guaranteed to cure indigestion, sour stomach, belching gas, dizziness, biliousness, heaviness, or any stomach ailment.

jection of the Bible as the word of God and of the deity of Christ and of His atonement for sin. We are nowhere taught to expect any improvement in these matters during this age, but we are faithfully to sow the seed of the word of God everywhere and expect just what we are taught in this parable. Some set their hearts on certain results and say we must have this or that, we must have fifty or a hundred conversions, we must have a revival, the town must be taken for God, etc. Happier are those who are in harmony with the Lord and who rest on His assurance that His word will accomplish that which He pleases (Isa. lv, 11). It is incorruptible seed, the word of life, and He has promised to watch over it (1 Pet. i, 23; Acts v, 20; Jer. i, 12, R. V.). The hearts of men are the soil, and some are beaten so hard by the going to and fro of the things of this life that the seed can scarce find entrance, and the devil is always watching to catch it away lest they should believe and be saved. Other hearts are hard within, rocky hearts, but with enough soft soil to receive the seed. Such appear to enjoy the word; they say it does them good, they receive it gladly, but they are easily offended, cannot stand any persecution.

In others the soil is good enough to grow thorns and the seed does find a lodging, and it grows, but the thorns grow so fast that there is no fruit. The cares and pleasures of this life, the deceitfulness of riches, the lusts of other things, choke the word, and no fruit is brought to perfection. In the first two kinds of soil there is no indication of salvation. I am inclined to believe that this third kind of soil indicates a possibility of salvation, but saved as by fire (1 Cor. iii, 14, 15). The fourth kind of soil is good by the grace of God. There is an honest reception of the truth. They hear it and understand it and keep it and bring forth fruit with patience, even to thirty, sixty or a hundred fold. All through this age this is what we are to expect and only this. It is ours to sow the seed, the pure seed of the word of God, everywhere and at all times, with confidence in Him that He will accomplish His pleasure by it always. Blessed is that servant whom his Lord when He cometh shall find so doing. Who can estimate the honor of being a laborer with God? Who would not say, "Here am I, send me!" But we must be sure that we preach only the preaching which He bids us that we carry only His message.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Prayer Meeting Topic For the Week
Beginning June 19, 1910.

Topic.—The yoke of Christ.—Matt. xi, 28-30. Comment by Rev. Sherman H. Doyle, D. D.

These verses are among the most gracious and comforting ever spoken by Christ. The invitation "Come unto Me" was not addressed to all who bore physical or mental burdens that were heavy to bear, but to the sinful burdens of man. Christ was speaking to the Pharisees, who were trying to carry their own burdens of sin, as represented by Christ's burden in the "Pilgrim's Progress." To these He would give rest by taking the burdens of sin from them by His death upon the cross. When Christ reached the cross and looked upon it in faith the burden representing this burden dropped from his shoulders and he was light hearted and free. So may any one be who will follow his example and allow Christ to take his burden of sins, which He is able to do, because on the cross He paid the penalty of man's sin.

When, however, we have become Christians and have lost the burden of sin there are still burdens to be borne. We still need spiritual rest. We are still often "weary and lone and sad" and still need to come to Christ and find rest in Him. Christ deceives no one. He does not say that burdens will end with becoming Christians, but points out the way of getting relief in them, not by getting away from them. These burdens He likens to a yoke, and the figure taken from the Old Testament refers to the yoke placed upon cattle.

1. He asks us to take His yoke upon us. "Take My yoke upon you." The yoke of Christ is a double yoke. It is on Him and on us, and under such circumstances it is not so burdensome. If we walk steadily with Him the yoke will be easy and He will bear the heavier part of the burden. In carrying the cross with Simon of Cyrene Christ bore the heavier part, that which contained the crossbeam, while Simon simply held up the bottom of the upright beam. Such will be our position if we take Christ's yoke upon us. "The cross is not greater than His grace."

In taking Christ's yoke we become His disciples, for we learn of Him. The principal method of learning is through His example, "Learn of Me, for I am meek and lowly in heart." Meekness and humility are examples of His virtues which we must copy. Christ is the greatest teacher the world ever had, for He taught with perfect knowledge the greatest things of life—the mutual relations between God and man, and of those between man and man and especially concerning the future life. Still, His greatest power as a teacher of morals and religion was in the life that He lived. In following His example we are to learn of Him. Moreover, it is in thus becoming like Him that we have the greatest success in winning others to Him. Christlikeness is more winsome than ability to teach theology. Saintliness has more power in making disciples than the power to teach religion from a scientific standpoint. Let men see Christ in your lives and they will soon seek the source of such a life.

Christ's yoke is easy. It is a yoke, and there are burdens with it, but it is easier than any other yoke. We must bear some yoke—the yoke of Christ, "the yoke of the law" or the yoke of Satan. The yoke of Christ may seem hard at first, but it grows easier as we become more accustomed to walking with Christ and at death leaves us forever. "The yoke of the law"—trying by our own righteousness to save ourselves is most galling, becomes more so as we advance in life and at death brings no relief. The yoke of Satan seems easy at the start. How pleasant seemingly to do as we please, to give free reign to our appetites and passions, but later on how burdensome the yoke of Satan becomes! Body and mind become impaired. Religion has no power in our lives. We are yoked indeed. We may try to escape our dreadful condition, but the yoke increases in size and becomes more burdensome, almost beyond endurance, and when death comes we still find no release. Indeed, torture turns to torment. The rich man when he died, according to the parable of Christ, so suffered. "In hell he lifted up his eyes, being in torment." How different from the condition of one who has worn the yoke of Christ in his lifetime! To him "there shall be no more death, neither sorrow nor crying; neither shall there be any more pain, for the former things are passed away." Some yoke you must bear in this world. In the light of the above facts how can you do else than take Christ's yoke upon you?

Christian Endeavor Among Indians.
While Dr. Clark was in Spokane, Wash., on his way home from India he was visited by Peter F. Corbett, a highly educated Nez Perce Indian, who is prominent among the ranchers of northern Idaho and is identified with the state bank of Kamiah.

He told Dr. Clark that more than 500 Indians on the Nez Perce reservation belong to the Christian Endeavor society. In the town of Kamiah there are ninety-five members. A peculiar feature of the situation is that the members almost all are the older people of the tribe. There are six Presbyterian churches on the reservation, and the work is progressing all the time.

GRAY HAIRS BANISHED.

The old idea of using sage for darkening the hair is again coming in vogue. Our grandmothers used to have dark, glossy hair at the age of seventy-five, while our mothers have white hair before they are fifty. Our grandmothers used to make a "sage tea" and apply it to their hair. The tea made their hair soft and glossy and gradually restored the natural color. One objection to using such a preparation was the trouble of making it, especially as it had to be made every two or three days on account of it souring quickly. This objection has been overcome and by asking almost any first-class druggist for Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur the public can get a superior preparation of sage, with the admixture of sulphur, another valuable remedy for hair and scalp troubles. Daily use of this preparation will not only quickly restore the color of the hair but will also stop the hair from falling out and make it grow. It is sold by all druggists for 50c. and $1.00 a bottle, or is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

For sale and recommended by Hargrove & Mullin.

WHAT EVERY WOMAN SHOULD KNOW

Velvet or ribbon bows may be given new life without removing them from the hat, by using a curling-iron. It should be made quite hot, then covered loosely with a wet cloth and inserted in the loops, opening iron as wide as loops demand, and holding it there until loops are dry, when they will look like new.

By slipping a pair of gauzy silk or cotton gloves over white kid gloves women can save a great deal of trouble and expense. This applies especially to commuters and travelers in street cars who desire to appear immaculate at receptions and club meetings.

Rip lace from discarded garments and wind it on a piece of pasteboard, just as new lace comes. When lace needs mending place the piece of old lace under the worn place and darn down. A new collar lined with old lace will last twice as long, and when hemstitching gives way I place a piece of old lace underneath and stitch on each side of the hem.

CROWDS THRILL AT AIR FLIGHTS

Indianapolis Aviation Meet Full of Sensation.

PROVING A GREAT SUCCESS

Exhibitions of Graceful Aerial Maneuvers by the Wright Sky Pilots Attended by Many a Thrill, and the Crowds Are Keenly Interested—Bad Accident Was Narrowly Averted When Aviator's Engine Went Dead High in Air.

Indianapolis, June 17.—The bird men who faced crowded bleachers and a packed grandstand at the Indianapolis motor speedway yesterday afternoon were not cheery in their predictions of the flights they would make, for there was a strong wind blowing from the north and it was admitted that even the Wright brothers' biplane is not a certain starter when the elements are contrary. Brookins had made a successful flight into a thirty-mile gale, but he did not hanker for any more of it, and it was admitted that he is the nerviest of all the flyers on the ground. Brookins made another attempt to break his own record for altitude and it was reported that he had reached a height of 5,000 feet and the crowd went wild. Ten minutes later it was found that a mistake in reckoning the height had been made and that he reached only 3,700 feet. He was in the air fifty-two minutes, the longest period for any aviator at the present meeting.

There was intense excitement during a flight by Arch Hoxsey in a Wright biplane. When the aviator was 200 feet high his motor stopped, but the operator kept his falling machine on a level plane and glided on a sharp slant into an adjoining field, landing without mishap to either self or machine.

Brookins made a flight in a race with a wind wagon, an automobile driven by a propeller, the same as used on airships. The wind wagon traveled the speedway track, while Brookins soared high above in the air. The exhibition had no thrills and no time was announced. Brookins and Welch then gave an exhibition of flying aeroplanes in opposite directions, turning near the south bleachers.

Brookins next gave an exhibition of short turning. He thrilled the crowd by tilting the big biplane until it seemed it would turn turtle, but he brought it right by a clever use of the control. Brookins remained in the air twenty-five minutes. Welch and Johnstone attempted a two-passenger jaunt through the air, but were able to make only two circuits of the course. Arch Hoxsey followed with an exhibition flight.

Brookins put on the real thrill of the afternoon in an exhibition of short turning. He circled the course, then returned to a point near the south turn and deliberately stood his machine on end while at an altitude of 100 feet. A. P. Warner, the official timekeeper, announced the time to have been made in six and two-fifths seconds and to be a world's record for short turns.

The Dayton inventors are now at work on a high-speed machine to be used in the international aviation meet in New York in the fall, and it is likely that Arch Hoxsey, one of the Wright aviators, will operate this machine. It will have almost double the power of the present Wright machine and is expected to develop great speed.

TOO FAST A PACE

In Trying to Keep Up With It Young Man Faces Prison.

Anderson, Ind., June 17.—When he was sentenced to serve from two to fourteen years in the Indiana reformatory at Jeffersonville on his plea of guilty to an indictment charging him with embezzlement, William J. Ryan, aged twenty-four, a graduate of the Indianapolis high school, swooned. Confessing his crime he told Judge Bagot, in circuit court, that he made his first serious misstep after he came here by trying to live beyond his means and to keep company with associates who were not dependent on salaries.

Young Ryan had a good time, dressed well, moved in the best social set and was hailed as a good fellow. The pace of living that he took up was too fast for his legitimate salary, however, and he felt the pangs of regret after it was too late. He was accused by the Remy Electric company with having embezzled $30 or more by padding payrolls at the works and pocketing the money credited as salaries to "straw men."

Dangerous Sleeping Place.

Laporte, Ind., June 17.—Two Terre Haute men, Frank Cannon and Albert Walker, employed here on sewer work, went to sleep in the Lake Shore yards here and were run over by a freight train. Cannon died at a hospital and Walker's condition is serious and may prove fatal.

Want Their Salaries Raised.

Indianapolis, June 17.—The county superintendents, at their state meeting decided that they ought to be better paid, and they appointed a legislative committee to see the legislature about it next winter.

Exit "Plug Horse"

Even the wilfully blind horse are being made to see that the "plug horse," as a commercial article, is a thing of the past, for while horses of quality, of any class, namely draft, coach, carriage, light harness, saddle, or track, are averaging higher than ever before in the history of the country, the "scrub," "plug" or "class no where" horse is not wanted at any price, by anyone, not even the Southern cotton planter who, from necessity, must put up, in the main, with careless, shiftless, and often horse abusing farm help, says the Western Horseman. It has long been a pound-foolish and penny wise proposition for any one to breed and raise scrub horse stock, but now the operation is simply the public highway to the poor house for any one who breeds horses at all to breed anything except those of real class and high quality. Of course, the high class, choicely bred standard breed horse is the most profitable of all horses to raise, but a horse of quality of any of the desirable classes is highly profitable, the more real quality the more profitable, and as to the future of the industry no man is able to figure out any probable unfavorable prognostications. It is simply a matter of producing a good horse and getting a good price, a highly profitable price.

THE DEADLIEST OF POISONS.

The idea of a poison is generally associated with execrable pain, a hospital cot and lingering death but, when the mind turns to cyanide of potassium, instant death looms for the imagination.

So treacherous and terrible is the poisonous nature of this innocent-looking candylike substance, that even the poison expert handles it with reluctance. And there is a reason, for unlike the other life destroyers he is so familiar with, he only needs to get this one in an unprotected wound in his hand or intake some of its sweet, bitter almond smelling vapors to be a corpse. Indeed, he would think nothing of chloroforming a dozen cats or scattering strychnine and arsenic broadcast by the pound, but, when it comes to cyanide of potassium, he literally "handles it with gloves."

Carbolic acid, opium, arsenic, strychnine and other poisons have become familiar terms to the general public, but of cyanide of potassium it hears but seldom, except when now and then a rogue elephant is to be executed. You may feed arsenic, nuxvomica, morphine or the like by the shovelful to one of these 6-ton pachyderms without doing anything but causing it intense agony, or nausea, yet a stick of this cyanide one inch in length and no thicker than an ordinary lead pencil will kill the colossus as quickly as if death itself had opened its gape and swallowed it. The poison is hidden within an appetizing carrot, the gigantic trunk reaches forth, grasps the dangerous morsel and into the huge mouth goes the death-dealing pill.

A surprised and accusing look comes into the dark eyes, the trunk makes a few feeble swings and with a couple of shudders of the massive hide the immense mass of animal vitality sinks into a heap of inanimate matter—From July Technical World Magazine.

Failure of the Food Supply

Imaginary fears are more real than actual dangers. No terrors are so dreadful as those conjured up in the imagination, those bugaboos with no foundation in fact. We are always conjuring up such terrors to frighten ourselves.

In this way we have for centuries, if not for aeons, been scaring ourselves with the notion that the food supply of the world must soon be exhausted. Learned "scientists" have prepared tables to show how soon our coal, timber and minerals must run out; how the earth could not continue to bring forth enough for the sustenance of the race because people multiply too rapidly; and, as the crowning terror of all, they have held out to us the assurance that at the end of a few thousands of years the sun's heat would be exhausted and vegetation fail.

We have felt ourselves on the brink of extinction, and have wept and paled before the awfulness of it. Like the girl in the college class who bursts into tears when the professor stated that at the present rate a certain mining town would likely cave in and destroy its inhabitants in the course of 200 or 300 years. When questioned as to the grief, the student replied: "Oh, I have a sister living there, and I cannot bear to think of her being buried alive!"

In this same wise way we have talked of the failure of the food supply and the danger of overpopulation, and have supposed various remedies.

We have evaded the dangers and responsibilities of rearing families on the ground that there are already more mouths than can be fed. Having reduced the family to the vanishing point—race suicide, as it is called—pride ourselves upon the superior mental and moral development which has led to this.

But all the time it is simply the outgrowth of the "unreasoning" terror of the child and the bogey-man.

When we look about us and weigh conditions we find little cause for terror. Notwithstanding the hideous poverty and man-made famines which we see and even look for, there never was a time when anything like so many persons in the world were well fed and safely housed, and we are no nearer want from failure of food-supply today than ever.

Indeed, we seem further from it, for we have now a new science that puts the failure of supply into the far distance, so that we may reasonably expect the earth to sustain humanity for countless ages yet.

We are only beginning to discover the productive possibilities of the earth. A yard can produce as much as half an acre once yielded, and no one has yet found the limit.

It isn't necessary that we should, for pressure is not yet great enough to demand that we wring the last farthing's worth from the bountiful earth. We have learned what Denmark and France can do, and the products raised on the islands on Jersey and Guernsey prove that one of our big States like New York or Texas could raise all the food-stuffs needed for all the people of this country.

Many experiments had to be made by many different people on small patches of land before this was accepted. But once shown that the earth is ready and willing to yield big returns to those who work it, we have only begun to teach.

The next question is, "Why should there be so much poverty and suffering; why should children cry for bread in this great country?" There is but one answer—"because people do not have access to the land." If they had, and knew what could be done with even a small piece of it, they would never again have to listen to children crying for bread.

The new movement to bring the people and the land closer together is doing a great deal toward decreasing poverty and increasing the food supply. Its plan is to get the people onto the land near the cities where they work and live, that they may go on with their work while learning to grow their food, until they know enough to get all of their living from the land.

A New Thought

There are two kinds of thought—new thought and second-hand thought, says Elbert Hubbard. New thought is the thought you, yourself, think. The other kind is supplied to us by jobbers.

The distinguishing features of new thought is its antiquity. Of necessity it is older than second-hand thought. All genuine new thought is true for the person who thinks it. It only turns sour and becomes error when not used, and when the owner forces another to accept it. It then becomes a second-hand revelation and second-hand revelations are errors, often half-sole by stupidity and healed by greed.

Very often we are inspired to think by others, but in our hearts we have the new thought and the person, the book, the incident, merely reminds us that it is already ours.

New thought is always simple; second-hand thought is abstruse, complex, patched, peculiar, costly, and is passed out to be accepted, not understood. That no one comprehends it is often regarded as a recommendation.

Dealers in second-hand thought always declare that theirs is the only genuine, and that all is spurious and dangerous.

Dealers in new thought say, "Take this only as it appeals to you as your own—accept it all, or in part, or reject it all—and in any event do not believe it merely because I say so."

New thought is founded on the laws of your own nature, and its shibboleth is, "Know Thyself."

Second-hand thought is founded on authority, and its war cry is, "Pay and Obey."

New thought offers you no promise of paradise or eternal bliss if you accept it; nor does it threaten you with everlasting hell if you don't.

All its offers is unending work, constant effort, new difficulties, beyond each success a new trial. Its only satisfactions are that you are allowing your life to unfold itself according to the laws of its nature. And these laws are divine just as you allow the divine to possess your being. New thought allows the currents of divinity to flow through you unobstructed.

Second-hand thought affords no plans of elimination; it tends to congestion, inflammation, disease and disintegration.

New thought holds all things lightly, gently, easily—even thought. It works for a healthy circulation, and tends to health, happiness and well-being now and hereafter. It does not believe in violence, force, coercion or resentment, because all these things react on the doer. It has faith that all men, if not interfered with by other men, will eventually evolve new thought, and do for themselves what is best and right, beautiful and true.

Second-hand thought has always had first in its mind the welfare of the dealer. The rights of the consumer, beyond keeping him in subjection, were not considered. Indeed, its chief recommendation has been that "it is a good police system."

New thought considers only the user. To "Know Thyself" is all there is of it.

When a creator of new thought goes into the business of retailing his product, he often forgets to live it, and soon is transformed into a dealer in second-hand thought; hence we see how a liberal is often a dogmatist in disguise.

That is the way all purveyors of second-hand revelation began. In their anxiety to succeed they call in the police. The blessing that is compulsory is not wholly good, and any system of morals which has to be forced on us is immoral.

New thought is free thought. Its penalty is responsibility. You have to live it, or lose it. Its reward is freedom.

NO 'SAFE AND SANE' FOURTH AT MANILLA

Residents of That Town are Planning to Have Biggest of All Big Celebrations.

HAVE PURCHASED FIREWORKS

No "safe and sane" Fourth of July for Manilla. They are planning to celebrate the annual holiday with the greatest program in the history of the town. Fireworks will be the leading feature on the program with more fireworks for the other events of the day. They have already purchased the supply of fire crackers, sky rockets, etc., and are making arrangements to make the sky around Manilla look like Halley's comet had returned. It is said that they expended more money this year for all of the fire works than ever before. It will be remembered that they had a big celebration there last year and that all of the paraphernalia was purchased by Lon Mull.

HAD YELLOW WATER TODAY

Because Water Main Burst in Main Street Last Night.

The city water was extremely yellow today and all because the water main in Main street in front of the Hargrove & Mullin drug store burst last night and the water ran all night. This morning the workmen repaired the leak. The pressure was practically all turned off and for that reason was very weak. The break was caused by piling too much heavy dirt in on top of the pipe.

TO ERECT THREE BUILDINGS.

The Bell Powder company of St. Paul, organized with capital from that place, has let the contract for three buildings which will be erected in the near future. ### AMUSEMENTS

The Vaudet management offers a good program tonight in the film, "His Last Keepsake and the Burial at Sea." It is a dramatic picture of much merit and is said to be extraordinary for its dramatic action and intensely interesting scenes. A new illustrated song will be on the program.

The Star Grand offers a Biograph subject tonight entitled "A Victim of Jealousy," showing it to be the worst of human weaknesses. This subject shows the unreasonableness of a person possessed with this, what might be termed disease. The young husband's irritable jealousy makes him suspicious of every attention bestowed upon his young wife, making her life as well as his own almost unendurable. There are many incidents shown to impress him what a fool he is until finally when his wife's patience has been tried to the extreme, and she threatens to leave him, he is awakened and realizes his weakness. Earl Robertson will sing "Under the Love Star With You."

Tell Some Sick One

It Is Free If It Fails.

Will you do an act of humanity?
Will you tell some sick friend of this, my remarkable offer?

Tell him or her, that you have learned of a medicine so certain that its maker dare say to the sick, "It is absolutely and unconditionally free if it fails."

And you, no doubt, already know of Dr. Shoop's Restorative and its popularity.

For 20 years it has been the standard remedy for Stomach, Kidney and Heart ailments everywhere in America.

When the "inside" or controlling nerves of these vital organs begin to fail, it is Dr. Shoop's Restorative that has quickly vitalized, and strengthened, and brought these nerves and organs back to health again.

I do not dose the Stomach, nor stimulate the Heart or Kidneys—for that is all wrong.

Dr. Shoop's Restorative goes direct to the cause of these ailments—the failing, faltering, inside or controlling nerves. And herein lies the keynote to my success.

When these nerves are again made well and strong, then that is the certain end of all such sickness.

Time it is a great satisfaction that I am the only physician able to say to the suffering sick, "Take my prescription for full 30 days and if it fails to help you, the entire expense is mine—not yours."

Then why should the sick take any chance on any other medicine, whose maker dare not back it up as I do by this remarkable offer?

I also have a Rheumatic Remedy—and that remedy is covered by the same identical "No help, no pay" protective plan.

Besides, you are free to consult me first as you would your home physician. My advice and the book below are yours—and without cost.

Perhaps a word or two from me will clear up some serious ailment. I have helped the ailing upon thousands by my private prescription of personal advice plan. My best effort is surely worth your simple request.

So let me send you an order at once. Take the message to some sick friend.

A postal will bring the opportunity.

I will have an honest and trustworthy druggist to whom you can conveniently go for the 30 day test.

But first, ask me for the order, for all druggists are not authorized to give the 30 day test.

So write me now and save all delays. Remember that tomorrow never comes. Address Dr. Shoop, Box 12, Racine, Wis.

No. 2 On the Heart No. 5 For Men

GILLETT'S ATTITUDE IS UNCOMPROMISING

Fight Promoters Feel a Premonition of Defeat.

San Francisco, June 17.—Tex Rickard, Gleason and other fight promoters are all up in the air in regard to holding the big fight in 'Frisco. Rickard feels a premonition of defeat. He said very gloomily that he would abide by the decision of the court. If an injunction against the Langford-Kaufman fight is granted, then he would make immediate arrangements to remove the fight to Nevada.

Salt Lake is out of the question because Governor Spry of Utah is strongly opposed to fighting and has just reiterated his previous statement that the fight should not take place in Utah. The proposition to hold the fight over the line in Nevada, 120 miles from Salt Lake, is also absurd, as that is 300 to 400 miles from the present scene of the battle and would prevent half of the visitors from seeing the fight. The governor's attitude on the fight is the most important consideration, and that is uncompromising.

Governor Gillett says that he has not changed his opinion since he issued his letter to the attorney general, and all arguments of promoters, hotel keepers and others have no weight with him. He declares that it is a question of principle and no monetary interest should be allowed to intrude.

KELIHER CONVICTED

Boston Gambler Who Buncoed Young Bank Clerk Faces Prison Gates.

Boston, June 17.—The jury in the United States circuit court here returned a verdict of guilty against William J. Keliher, who was tried for complicity in abetting George W. Coleman to wreck the Cambridge bank, where he was a $12-a-week clerk.

Coleman confessed to having stolen over $200,000 from the bank, a large part of which he lost in fake faro games. It was charged that Keliher "trimmed" Coleman of the money by joining with others in a gambling frame-up to lure the bank clerk.

ALL READY FOR THE COLONEL

New York Has Completed Reception Plans.

ANXIOUS ABOUT THE WEATHER

While the Committee Has Cared For the Details of Decorations and Monster Parade, It Cannot Guarantee Sun, and Everyone Is Hoping For Fine Weather, That Nothing May Mar the Colonel's Homecoming.

New York, June 17.—The time when Colonel Roosevelt will plant his feet on Manhattan is drawing so close that the reception committee is getting anxious about the weather. All of the arrangements, the multitude of details which had to be worked out, have been completed, but the committee can't guarantee sun. Rain would play hob with the decorations up Broadway and Fifth avenue and make things extremely unpleasant for the carriage loads of senators and congressmen and dignitaries who expect to follow the colonel up town.

They are particularly concerned at the reception committee headquarters today. They want the colonel to see flags wherever he looks. Assistant Secretary Harwood of the committee says that the indications are that the decorations will lay over anything of the kind New York ever saw. It is a little uncertain at what exact time the ship will get to Quarantine. It is possible that she will come up as early as 4 o'clock tomorrow morning and that she will be there surely by 6 o'clock. The revenue cutter Manhattan, with Mr. Loeb and some of the intimate friends aboard, will leave the foot of West Eighteenth street at 6:45 a. m., and will take the colonel off the Kaiserin at 7:45. The revenue cutter Androscoggin, with the reception committee, a few governors and representatives of other governors, will leave at 7:45 and will take him on board after he has breakfasted. After the colonel has received letters of welcome from Mr. Taft and Governor Hughes and has greeted Cornelius Vanderbilt and the members of Mayor Gaynor's committee the water parade will start from Quarantine at 9:30.

Each division will fall into line in its proper place as the Androscoggin passes up the bay. The column will round a stakeboat in the North river off Fifty-ninth street and will then go back to the Battery. Colonel Roosevelt will be landed on Pier A at 11 a. m. sharp. In the reception stand in Battery park Mayor Gaynor will deliver a brief speech of welcome, to which the colonel will reply briefly. On the stand with Roosevelt and the mayor will be 500 guests and arrangements have been made to accommodate 2,500 more in an adjoining stand. The police expect 25,000 people to be crowded around the stands. On the stand with the colonel will be cabinet officers, senators and congressmen, members of diplomatic corps, state governors, mayors and other dignitaries. The committee has provided place in the parade for 32,500 men, but it is thought that organizations not provided for will be permitted to fall in line and that there will be 50,000 riding or marching with the colonel.

Police Commissioner Baker has arranged to have 4,461 policemen on the job of keeping order. Sixteen inspectors, forty-eight captains and 127 lieutenants will command the men all the way from the Battery to Fifty-ninth street, and the line of march will be between bluecoats all the way.

Second Attempt Successful.

North Vernon, Ind., June 17.—"Yeggs" cracked a safe in the post-office at Brewersville and escaped with $400 in cash and checks. The safe was ruined and a hole was made in the roof of the postoffice building. A few months ago the safe withstood an attempt to crack it.

JAMES E. WATSON.

Billed For an Arm-in-Arm Campaign Tour With Sherman.

MOURNED AS DEAD FOR TWENTY YEARS

Indiana Man Another Modern Enoch Arden.

Lafayette, Ind., June 17.—Mourned as dead for twenty years, his wife in the meantime remarrying, Frank T. Smith has appeared in the superior court here as a prominent figure in a lawsuit in which his son, Lawrence H. Smith, is seeking to recover possession of a tract of rich farm land which his mother disposed of several years ago by selling it to Harrison B. Wallace of this city.

Smith's return to his home here after the long absence was a great surprise, and the story is not unlike that of Enoch Arden.

It was a score of years ago when he left home without telling his family where he was going, and his wife, Mrs. Effie L. Smith, waited year after year to hear from him. Finally, believing him dead, she married John Wilson. The woman had inherited from her father, Joseph Graves, a large farm in Jackson township, this county, and a few years ago sold it to Mr. Wallace.

Under the laws of Indiana a married woman cannot execute a deed without her husband joining in the transaction. In the deed which was given to Wallace, the name of John Wilson appeared as the woman's husband. In the suit now in progress, Lawrence H. Smith claims that Wilson was not the legal husband of his mother, and therefore could not join in the execution of a deed. On this ground he bases his fight to recover possession of the land formerly owned by his mother.

Baby Abandoned on Junk Pile.

Lafayette, Ind., June 17.—Abandoned by a heartless mother, a newly born girl baby was found concealed beneath a dishpan on a pile of rubbish in a ravine near Eighteenth and Rush streets. Jasper Wilson was searching for junk there when he heard the feeble cries of the child. Lifting the pan, he found the babe wrapped in a copy of a newspaper. The police were immediately notified and the babe was taken to the Martha home, where medical aid was given it.

Can't Move, Says Court.

Guthrie, Okla., June 17.—Judge A. H. Huston, in the county district court here, overruled the demurrer filed by Governor Haskell to the petition of County Attorney Hepburn, who had asked for an injunction preventing the removal of the capital from Guthrie to Oklahoma City. The temporary injunction issued last Monday was continued in force until further order.

It All Depends.

Washington, June 17.—Both San Francisco and New Orleans must raise $7,500,000 before they can hope to receive government indorsement for their expositions in celebration of the completion of the Panama canal. The house committee on foreign affairs decided not to invite foreign nations to participate until these conditions were complied with.

A $2,000,000 Gas Deal.

South Bend, Ind., June 17.—A merger of gas plants in northern Indiana cities has been completed. Plants in South Bend, Mishawaka, Plymouth, Hammond, Whiting, East Chicago, Indiana Harbor, Chesterton, Porter and Michigan City are included in the deal. The amount involved is placed at $2,000,000.

Dr. Bryan's Successor.

Franklin, Ind., June 17.—Dr. Elijah Hanley has accepted a call to the presidency of Franklin college, and will begin his labors as soon as he can obtain his pastoral release from the first Baptist church in Providence, R. I. Dr. Hanley will succeed E. B. Bryan, who recently accepted a New York call.

The National Trades and Workers' Association has tendered to Colonel Roosevelt the presidency of the association for one year from date of his acceptance, with an offer of $100,000 for the year's service.

TAKE BACKWARD STEP FORWARD

House Rules Committee Settles All Differences.

ANCIENT USAGE IS RESTORED

By Returning to the Method Employed Seventy-Five Years Ago of Taking Any Measure From a Committee and Placing It on the Calendar, It Is Thought That Long Wrangle Over Present Procedure Will Have Been Silenced.

Washington, June 17.—There will be no row over the rules of the house between now and the end of the session, according to indications. Harmony of the most saccharine kind prevails through the house at present, and it is entirely within the bounds of probability that the rules committee may report the last and greatest rules reform desired by insurgents and Democrats, and that the amendment may be adopted without a dissenting vote.

When the committee on rules adjourned last evening after an all-day session there was an almost complete agreement on an amendment to the rules to provide for the discharge of any committee from the consideration of a bill after a certain time and under certain conditions. The final touches will be put to this amendment today, and it may be that before the speaker's gavel falls this evening this proposition, which threatened for a time to open the old wounds, stir up slumbering animosities and raise hob generally, will have been adopted by a unanimous vote and without a harsh word having been spoken.

Seventy-five years ago there was a method by which a committee could be discharged from consideration of any bill and the measure taken in the house by a majority vote. But the growth of the body and the country with the supposed necessity for more stringent rules of procedure in the house brought about its elimination. The movement now on foot will restore this ancient method and permit a majority of the house itself, not a quorum majority, to take from any committee any bill and place it on its appropriate calendar for action at the proper time. Parliamentarians, including Asher C. Hinds, the parliamentarian of the house, consider this a decided backward step forward.

The resolution which will be reported by the rules committee is a modification of that introduced late Wednesday by Representative Champ Clark, the minority leader, and which in turn contained the basic principles of the resolution introduced more than a month ago by Mr. Shirley of Kentucky.

Closes the President's Program.

Washington, June 17.—The bill giving statehood to New Mexico and Arizona—the last of the remaining territories—has passed the senate and will now go to conference. This finishes about all the administration measures in the senate.

STARTS ON LONG TRIP

Secretary of War Dickinson Going Around the World.

Washington, June 17.—Secretary of War Dickinson has left for a trip around the world, visiting the Philippines, China, Siberia, Russia and France. He will go first to Nashville, where on Monday next he will review the regular troops attending the military tournament there. He will then go to Chicago, where he will spend a few days before going to Frisco, whence he will sail on June 28 on the Pacific Mail steamer Siberia.

Secretary Dickinson was accompanied by Mrs. Dickinson, J. M. Dickinson, Jr., his son; Brigadier General Clarence R. Edwards, chief of the bureau of insular affairs of the war department; Mrs. Edwards and their daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Larz Anderson of this city; Lincoln B. Clarke, Secretary Dickinson's confidential clerk, and George Long, a messenger. Mr. Dickinson will inspect Pearl Harbor and the forts at Honolulu on July 4. The party is due to arrive at Yokohama on July 15 and will remain in Japan five days. It will sail on July 20 from Nagasaki for Manila. Five weeks will be spent in an inspection trip over the Philippines. The party will leave Manila Sept. 6, returning via Hong Kong and Peking, over the trans-Siberian railway to Moscow, to Warsaw and thence to France. The party will sail from Cherbourg early in October for New York.

GOING TO DO TEAM WORK IN CAMPAIGN

The Two Jims, Sherman and Watson, Join Forces.

Washington, June 17.—Vice President Sherman and former Representative James E. Watson of Indiana, conferred with the president with respect to the sort of campaign the Republicans shall conduct this year. Sherman and Watson have been delegated to lay the foundation for the campaign. A little later they will make a swing around the circle arm in arm, in behalf of the party in power. Watson said that the purpose of their talk with the president was to arrive at some definite understanding as to the character of the "gospel" that is to be preached. The president, of course, wants the record of his party defended, and he looks on Sherman and Watson as the kind of men who can put up a substantial defense. Watson is now devoting the whole of his time to the congressional campaign committee.

VACANCY NEEDED

And That Is Why Mr. Stutesman Is Coming Back From Bolivia.

Washington, June 17.—James F. Stutesman of Peru, Ind., American minister to Bolivia, has resigned. His resignation was brought about indirectly by the nomination of F. W. Carpenter of Minnesota, former secretary to the president, to be minister to Morocco. Mr. Carpenter displaced H. Percival Dodge of Massachusetts. In order to find a new post for Mr. Dodge it was apparently necessary to create a vacancy. Hence Mr. Stutesman's retirement. Mr. Stutesman was appointed to the diplomatic service June 5, 1908. He was a former member of the Indiana legislature. He is now in this country on leave of absence. He had come up here to get married.

RENOMINATED

"Straight" Democrats of Tennessee Name Patterson to Succeed Himself.

Nashville, Tenn., June 17.—Governor M. R. Patterson and a full ticket were nominated by the straight Democracy of this state in convention here, and a platform adopted which indorses his administration and demanded the repeal of the prohibition laws and the re-enactment of the laws which formerly stood on the statute books.

The coalition of the bolting Democratic judges with the Republicans is scathingly arraigned and the hypocrisy of the union laid bare.

Farmer Killed by Lightning.

Marion, Ind., June 17.—Simon Conn, aged fifty-three, a farmer of Grant county, was instantly killed by lightning while hoeing in his garden.

Don't Spoil Your Clothes.

Use Red Cross Ball Blue and keep them white as snow. All grocers, 5 cents a package.

In sickness, if a certain hidden nerve goes wrong, then the organ that this nerve controls will also surely fail. It may be a stomach nerve, or it may have given strength and support to the heart and kidneys. It was Dr. Shoop that first pointed to this vital truth. Dr. Shoop's Restorative was not made to dose the stomach nor to temporarily stimulate the heart or kidneys. That old-fashioned method is all wrong. Dr. Shoop's Restorative goes directly to these failing inside nerves. The remarkable success of this prescription demonstrates the wisdom of treating the actual cause of these failing organs. And it is indeed easy to prove. A simple five or ten days test will surely tell. Try it once and see! Sold by Frank E. Wolcott.

If you use ball blue, get Red Cross Ball Blue, the best ball blue. Large 2oz. package 5 cents.

SATISFIED WITH BIG DAY HERE

Shelbyville Business Men Return Home And Pronounce "Big Wednesday" a Success.

PAPER SPEAKS OF BUSINESS

Hundreds of Dollars Spent Here
Which Would Have Sought
Other Territory.

Several of our business men went to Rushville Wednesday to see the workings of the Retail Merchants' Association's "Big Wednesday" and they came home well satisfied, says the Shelbyville Republican. The merchants of that city have planned special inducements to draw trade to that city and they advertise cheap sales very extensively in the towns in Rush county and the smaller towns in the surrounding counties.

This was the second "Big Wednesday" the merchants had attempted and while there were very few farmers in the city on account of farm work, there were many women and children from the country and they spent quite a large sum of money.

One merchant said that he had sold seventeen hats, besides considerable other stuff up to three o'clock in the afternoon. Other merchants stated that their trade was about as large as the usual Saturday trade, and that would be many times greater than the regular Wednesday trade.

The ice cream parlors, restaurants and amusement places were crowded all day and there were hundreds of dollars spent there that would not have been spent if the association offered no attractions to draw people to the city.

They expect to have "Big Wednesday" every other Wednesday and the crowds will commence increasing after the wheat season is finished.

A NEW HEN-FOOD.

An exchange has a formula for a food that will make hens lay. It is called "cackle hay," and consists of lawn cuttings. The correspondent says: "I have for many years been saving the short green grass and putting it in sacks after thorough drying as winter feed for hens. I run it through the feed cutter and mix it with hominy meal and middlings, say half a peck of each and the same quantity of cuttings and feed warm. The hens go after it ravenously—and don't they lay! That's why I call it 'cackle hay.'"

What Our Neighbors Are Talking About

FOUR LEAVES COMMON.

(Greensburg News.)

The four leaf clover is fast disappearing for a more wonderful member of the clover family, which has six leaves, is being found by several persons, which shows that it is not so much of a rarity after all, and that the four leaf kind can take a back seat for it is now entirely out of date.

Monday M. B. Brogan, a Big Four watchman, found a six leaf clover on West Main street, which to the knowledge of many is the first that has been discovered for many years. Yesterday morning Miss Carrie, daughter of Ed Lawrence and wife, of East North street, was out in the garden patch and found a clover of six leaves. Near it were several of the four leaf kind.

HAVE VEHICLE TAX.

(Richmond Item.)

After extensive deliberations extending over a period of about two months, the proposed vehicle ordinance has been patched up by council until it is ready to be reported for final action. It provides for a reduction from the special tax on two horse wagons of from $4 to 3. A reduction was granted on automobiles, the two-passenger kind to be taxed $3 and all those of larger capacity at the rate of $1 for each additional passenger. The automobilists had asked for a straight tax of $1 per passenger, if they were to be taxed at all. The original tax was $5 on the small machines and $15 on the larger ones.

A schedule of rebates was agreed upon. This is to meet the demands of liverymen and others owning a number of vehicles. It will enable them to buy license tags by wholesale at a reduced rate.

PLAN FOURTH CELEBRATION.

(Shelbyville Republican.)

The biggest Fourth of July celebration in this city in many a year has been promised by George Hoagland, manager of the Hoagland Hippodrome Company of Morgan county. Mr. Hoagland will be assisted in part of the entertainment by the Merchant's Protective Association.

The merchants held a meeting last night and the matter was thoroughly discussed. The association has appointed a committee which will secure funds for part of the program. They will furnish music and some amusement in the morning in the city which will hold the crowd in town. In the afternoon Mr. Hoagland's company will furnish a number of amusements at the fair grounds. Among them will be hippodrome races, chariot races, Roman standing races, a race between two balloons and other races. There are now a number of horses in training at the fair grounds and these animals will be given a chance to enter three or four races, the purses to be offered to aggregate about $600.

EAT THE REMAINS.

(Columbus Republican.)

Another illustration wherein an infant industry has outgrown the necessity of protection is shown in Decatur county, where the belligerent Hungarian pheasant, waxing strong and growing sassy under the protecting wing of Brother Sweeney's game laws, arbitrarily assumes control of the barnyards that are nearby to the game preserves. The story from up Greensburg way is that the feathered Hunyak, coddled by law, preens his plumes in barnyards and fights anything that interferes. It's no trouble at all for him to lick a turkey gobbler, while an ordinary chancier is positively beneath his notice. It has come to a pretty pass when a despicable foreign element dominates our barnyards. If he continues his encroachments serious complications may arise. It may result in bloodshed—the foreigner furnishing the blood. Brother Sweeney is now out of office and the suggestion is vouchsafed that if any of these pheasants ever attack a man, the man is perfectly justified in protecting himself, even to the extent of taking the life of the bloodthirsty feathered biped. Of course, after death overtakes the invader, it would smack of downright wastefulness to our natural resources to permit the carcass to go to waste. Conservation is the watchword of the times, therefore, if anyone is obliged to kill a pheasant in self defense, eat the remains.

SOCIETY NEWS

The second of the Zoller-Davidson parties was given Wednesday at the Zoller residence in East Main street and was as an enjoyable affair as that of a previous day, being a one o'clock luncheon in honor of Mrs. Rolin Turner and Mrs. Aileen Duncan, says the Greensburg Democrat. The entire house was used and the garnishing of the rooms was done in June roses and daisies, as on the preceding day. The guests were received by Mrs. Louis Zoller, her daughter, Mrs. Cora Davidson, Mrs. Frank Wilson of Rushville, Mrs. Miller of Cincinnati, Mrs. Rollin Turner and Mrs. Aileen Duncan of Greenfield.

The appointments of the luncheon, which was of seven courses, were all the daisy pattern, including the ices, which were served. The place cards were Sepia work in the form of bridal symbols. Following the luncheon the ladies played euchre, the prizes for which were awarded to Mrs. John Osborn and Mrs. Robert Bussel. The company was one of the most elaborate and elegant functions of the season.

The non-resident guests were Mrs. Nora West of Everett, Washington; Mrs. Miller of Cincinnati, and Mrs. Frank Wilson of Rushville, mother of one of the brides, Mrs. Aileen Duncan of Greenfield.
